Hello SVDA JR/YR's and supporters,

I am relieved to say the entries are finally complete! Following is a listing of the participants and teams. I am very pleased that we have so many competitors - 12 members to represent SVDA! We have two full teams of four riders and four individual riders at other levels that will be matched with other individual riders of the same age group and level at the show. Remember, no matter how the entries worked out, we are all going as one group representing SVDA, will all stable together, and be able to support each other - won't it be inspiring to other clubs and riders as we root for and help out our club members no matter what team they are on?

Team	Division	Team	Division
SVDA - Gold	Mix - T 3/4	SVDA - Platinum	Mix - 1st 1/2
Gaby Martin		Alexa Rudis
Mary Cornell		Ashley Swindell
Victoria Pickett		Grace Harrell
Alexis Taves		Alexandra Glagola
SVDA - Blue A	Individual, E, 2nd level	SVDA - Blue B	Individual, C, T 3/4
Jessica Zoskey		Kasey Blanton
SVDA - Blue C	Individual, AA, Intro	SVDA - Blue D	Individual, B, T 1/2
Abby Zezeski		Cara Lucy

Again, the individuals will get paired with other individual riders of similar age and level chosen to form teams for the competition. Best of luck and thank you to all competitors for making such a good showing for SVDA!

I am also pleased to report that we have raised enough money to cover the cost for each competitor for stabling, team test, one warm up test, and the competitor party ticket for the rider. We also have the saddle pads generously donated by Chesapeake Saddler that will be embroidered. We have a few more sponsorships that have come through this week which I will list in an upcoming announcement that will enable us to get a polo shirt for each competitor with the SVDA logo and person's name. Wendy Murray has found a local Suffolk embroider that can provide the shirts and work for a very reasonable price.

I would like to invite all competitors and parents to a get together at Happy Valley on Thursday, July 7th at 6:30 pm. We will work on stall (and trailer?)decorations, go over any questions, get to know one another better. Wendy Murray has helped put together a stall sign to which competitors can add a photo and personal info. Our Jr color is a deep purple which is on the signs and will be the color of the pools. Please,, please bring your creative ideas and contact me ahead of time so we can get supplies. I will have some light refreshments, feel free to bring a snack food to share. Please RSVP if you will be attending or not. Your help and participation is really needed! I know we have some creative and crafty people out there - HELP! All SVDA members are welcome to join in, just let me know.

Please be aware, I am going to sign up all competitors, me included, to volunteer at the show. I am sure this will be worked around ride times and will count toward VADA qualifications for year end awards. Not to mention, without everyone pitching in, there would not be a show.

Please note the attached show sponsorship information and Team Rules information. There are some good opportunities for advertisement for sponsors, take a look and Jr's contact your neighbors.

Thanks everyone, please contact me with any questions or ideas, I really appreciate all of the support. Beware, we are already thinking about next year. This year many SVDA members helped the Jr's along. Next year, we would like to provide the same or better opportunities, will also require that the competing JR's participate in more of the fund raising and activities. Happy Riding!

Hello again,
It looks like Thursday, July 7th is not good for many people. How does Tuesday, July 11th work for everyone? We can't go much later but I want to give everyone time to plan.
Also, I would like to ask that everyone chip in $15 towards decorations, I will pick up some supplies to use. Everyone find a photo of you and your horse, or take one soon, so we can put on your stall signs.
Please email or call me by this FRIDAY to let me know about dates that work so we can get the most people together as possible. Those who can not attend, we will make enough for all participants or let you know what you need to do.
I will email directions and the final time and date and a checklist for the meeting. At the meeting, I will also go over things like ring etiquette, what to bring like fans and extension cords.
So, everyone bring a tip to share that you have found useful in your showing experience, even better if connected to a funny story of something that happened.

Thanks!

DANIELLE ROWLAND MAKES 2005 USDF REGION 1 NAYR TEAM

Dreams do come true as Danielle Rowland has made this year's Region 1 Advanced Young Rider team with her partner, Dutch Warnblood "King D'Azur". In 2004 Dani competed her Dutch horse "Magic", which she trained herself, in several qualifers for the Region 1 team but was unable to finish the qualifers due to an injury to Magic. Although a tremendous disappointment, Dani always kept a positive attitude and her exceptional work ethic. Fortunately Magic has fully recovered but we knew that he would not be fit enough to compete early this spring. Late last summer, Janice Mumford offered Mike and Kathy Rowse the opportunity to purchase 1/2 of her very successful FEI horse, "King D' Azur", and together they would sponsor Danielle's efforts with Kingsley to make the 2005 team. Although Kinsley has had a very successful show career, he takes a tactful rider with very accurate and soft aids. Over the winter Dani set out to become a "Team" with her new boy. This year team "Kingsley" has seen many successes - including scores up to 66% in the Prix St .George and quite a few blue ribbons. But the high point was getting the phone call on June 22nd that they would make the team!

There are many qualifying requirements - the candidates must do a minimum of 3 competitions - always judged by two "S" judges. Most of the candidates do 4 shows since then you can drop your lowest score.. However if you compete in more than 4 shows - you still can only drop 1 score, so consistency over time is very important for making the team. The Young Rider Team test is equivilant to 4th LL test 3 and counts 60% towards your "average" score for that particular show. Having a clean Team Test was always our priority. Dani almost never missed her 3 or 4 tempis and really tryed to nail the canter pirouettes. Then each candidate must do either the Freesyle or the Prix St George and that score will count 40% towards the "average" score for the show. You must decide ahead of time which test will count - so you can't ride the test and see how you do before making that important decision! In your final score count - you must include at least one show where you have the PSG in your average and one show where you have the Freestyle in your average. This precludes someone sending in all freestyle scores, as freestyles can sometimes have a higher score due to the artisitic component.

There were 18 eligible riders in Region 1 vieing for the 4 team spots. In 2004 an average of 61% was good enough to make the team - this year it took an average of over 63% - so the standard is high in Reion 1. Danielle finished with the 3rd highest average score at 63.45%! She joins Catherine Malone (PA), Emily Andon (MD) and Madison Clonginger (NC) with Sarah Clark as the alternate on this year's team.

After celebrating a bit and giving Kingsley MORE treats - we are hard at work everyday preparing for the North American Young Rider Championships. An unbelievable stroke of luck is that the championshipos will be held at our own Lexington Horse Center on July 26-31st. This has saved us major costs in shipping, hotels and airfare! Also the Region 1 team has the advantage of being comfortable at this venue and used to the hot, humid Virginia summers! Tina Longaker is the manager for the dressage portion and is looking for volunteers! There will also be eventing and show jumping competitions. Take advantage of this opporutunity to see an International Young Rider Competition right here in Virginia and to cheer on our own SVDA member Danielle!

The schedule is as follows:
Tuesday July 26 - 1:00 horse inspection and jog
Weds and Thurs July 27/28 - team competition
Friday July 29 - Individual competition
Sat July 30 - Consulation Competition
Sun July 31 - Freestyle Finals for individual medals

Again Congratulations to both Danielle and Kingsley - they set a high standard and achieved their dream. Now we all wish them clean tests with collection and brillance at the Championships!

USDF Celebrates Ground Breaking Of National Headquarters

USDF held the official groundbreaking ceremony for the USDF National Education Center on Wednesday, June 22, 2005 at the Kentucky Horse Park. The organization's President, Dr. Samuel Barish stated, "I believe that this is the most significant event in the history of USDF. We are looking forward to being included on a daily basis in an equestrian community environment where we can work effectively on behalf of dressage and our members."

The USDF National Education Center will be the next door neighbor of the United States Equestrian Federation and within sight of the U.S. Pony Clubs, the American Hanoverian Society and many other equestrian organizations.

The highlight of the event came when the honored guests donned hard hats and dug in with their shovels to ceremonially break the ground at the site of the USDF National Education Center. Immediately following the groundbreaking, large earth-movers stoked up their engines and began the construction project, which is expected to be completed in late April 2006.

"This is a very special moment for USDF," said Charles Smith, USDF National Capital Campaign Chair, "and I want to thank those that have worked with the campaign by contributing money, time and energy." Those contributions currently total over two million dollars, but Mr. Smith cautioned the audience that the campaign has a long way to go to reach the five million dollar goal. "We would like to be completed with this campaign by the time we have the ribbon-cutting ceremony."
